

Trinity-Pawling School

Summer Reading 2010 – Upper School

9th Grade Honors English Students – Bernard Cornwell’s Agincourt.

All Other 9th Graders – Read John Green’s Looking for Alaska and Zachary Mason’s Lost Books of the Odyssey: Novel

10th Grade Honors’ History – Read Tracy Kidder’s Strength in What Remains. It is strongly recommended that you also read George Orwell’s Burmese Days.

All Other 10th Graders – Read Tracy Kidder’s Strength in What Remains.

11th Grade AP Language – Read Jennifer Thompson-Cannino’s Picking Cotton and Robert Penn Warren’s All the King’s Men.

All Other 11th Graders – Read Jennifer Thompson-Cannino’s Picking Cotton and Junot Diaz’s The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao.

AP American History Students Also Read – Robert A. Gross’ The Minutemen and Their World and Michael R. Beschloss’ The Conquerors: Roosevelt, Truman and the Destruction of Hitler’s Germany, 1941 – 1945.

AP English Literature and English 4 Honors – Read Jennifer Thompson-Cannino’s Picking Cotton and two of the selections off of the following list.

Invisible Man	Madame Bovary	The Odyssey
The Road	Robinson Crusoe	A Portrait of an Artist as a Young Man
Snow Falling on Cedars 1984	Billy Budd	Go Tell It On the Mountain
The Sound and the Fury	The Sun Also Rises	Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead
Lord Jim	A Tale of Two Cities	The Kite Runner
	Brave New World

All Other 12th Graders – Read Jennifer Thompson-Cannino’s Picking Cotton and Tracy Kidder’s Strength in What Remains.

AP European History Students Also Read – David Liss’ The Coffee Trader.