BASKETBALL at Trinity-Pawling School

PHILOSOPHY

Trinity-Pawling's basketball program builds on its reputation of playing with passion and good sportsmanship. The coaching staff recognizes the importance of skill development and good basketball habits. All basketball players are invited to engage in an inclusive program, detailed by on-court individual workouts and open gyms.

HISTORY

The Pride basketball program has routinely been one of the top programs in NEPSAC Class A, including two New England Championships (1994 and 2005), 27 Tri-State League Championships, and 12 Founders League Championships.

LEAGUE

The Pride competes in NEPSAC Class A, Founders, and Tri State Leagues, playing against teams such as Salisbury, Taft, Hotchkiss, Loomis, Kent, Choate, and Avon Old Farms. The Pride also plays outside of the Leagues against Tabor, Andover, Exeter, Cheshire, and Blair.

FACILITIES

✎ Miles Hubbard '57 Court - Home of Trinity-Pawling Basketball, was renovated in 2017 with new scoreboards, floors, sound system, and a state of the art video capture and analysis system (PlaySight) installed in the gymnasium.

✎ Smith Field House - opened in 2017

✎ Schreiber Weight Room - renovated in 2014

✎ Pride Locker Room - renovated in 2013
